all for one and all for love.

Let the one you hold be the one you want, the one you need, 'cause when it's all for one it's one for all. When there's some-one that should know then just let your feel-ings show and make it

all for one and all for love

When it's love you make

Don't lay our love to rest 'cause we could stand up to the test We got ev - 'ry - thing and more

Verse 3:

I like a good beer buzz early in the morning, And Billy likes to peel the labels from his bottles of Bud. And shred them on the bar.

Then he lights every match in an oversized pack, Letting each one burn down to his thick fingers. Before blowing and cursing them out. And he's watching the Buds as they spin on the floor. A happy couple enters the bar dancing dangerously close to one another.

The bartender looks up from his want ads. (To Chorus:)

Colors of the wind

VANESSA WILLIAMS

You think you own whatever land you land on.
The earth is just a dead thing you can claim.
But if know every rock and tree and creature.
Has a life, has a spirit, has a name.
You think the only people who are people.
Are the people who look and think like you
But if you walk the footsteps of a stranger.
You'll learn things you never knew you never knew.

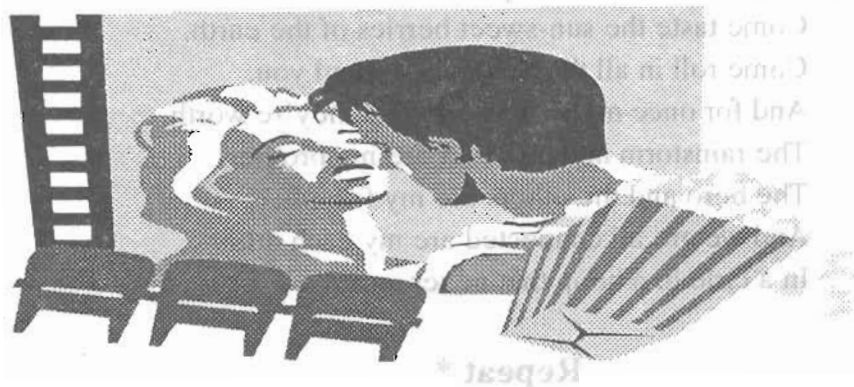

Have you ever heard the wolf cry to the blue corn moon.
Or asked the grinning bobcat why he grinned .
Can you sing with all the voices of the mountain ?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind ?
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind ?
Come run the hidden pine trails of the forest.
Come taste the sun-sweet berries of the earth.
Come roll in all the richer all around you.
And for once never wonder what they're worth.
The rainstorm and the river are my brother.
The hero and the others are my friends.
And we are all connected are my each other
In a circle in a hoop that never end

Repeat *

Colors of the Wind

How high does the sycamore grow,
If you cut it down then you'll never know,
And you'll never hear the wolf
Cry to the blue corn moon
For whether we are white or copper-skinned,
We need to sing with all the voice of the mountain,
Need to paint with all the colors of the wind,
You can own is earth and still
All you'll own is earth until
You can paint with all the colors of the wind.

FIELDS OF GOLD

STING

You'll remember me
When the east wind moves
Upon the fields of barley
You'll forget the sun in his jealous sky
As we walk the field of gold
So she took her lover - for a while
To gaze upon the fields of barley
In his arms she fell
As her hair came down upon the fields of gold
Will you stay with me, will you be my love
Among the fields of barley
We'll forget the sun in his jealous sky
As we lie in the fields of gold
See the west wind moves like a lover
so
Upon the fields of barley

Feel her body rise as you kiss her mouth
Among the fields of gold
I never made promises lightly
But I swear in the day still left
We'll walk in the fields of gold
Many years have passed, since those summer days
Among the field of barley
See the children run as the sun goes down
Among the fields of gold
You'll remember me, when the east wind moves
Upon the fields of barley
You can tell the sun in his jealous sky
When we walk in the fields of gold.

The musical score is written on five staves in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 12/8 time signature. The melody is characterized by a slow, soulful feel with many ties and a descending line in the final phrase. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with some words hyphenated across lines.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is written on a single staff. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes beamed together. There are several slurs over the melody, indicating phrasing. The first line of the melody ends with a double bar line.
